ALEXANDRIA WATER COMPANY, -One of the greatest "improvements" effected in this place, for many years, was the establishment of the Water Company, for the supply of the city with good, wholesome water. It was, feared, at one period, that Cameron Run would not furnish an adequate supply; but time and experience have demonstrated that not only is there an abundance to be obtained from that source, but that there will be enough for twice the present population of Alexandria. All the works of the company are in excellent condition, and under excellent management-the Reservoir, the Steam Pump at the Run, &c. Mr. George H. Smoot, the President of the Company, is indefatigable in his exertions, and, indeed, all the officers and employees, deserve credit for their fidelity and attention .-The city owes much to the efforts of Benjamin Hallowell, our former fellow citizen, for carrying out to a successful completion what many considered, at the time, a hazardous, if not a chimerical, scheme. But the "water works" triumphed over all difficulties, and are now a valuable addition to the comfort and health of the community.

THE SURROUNDING COUNTRY is looking, at this time, very beautiful. In the neighborhood of town, both in this and Fairfax counties, the wheat and rye are looking well-we may say, never looked better-the pastures are unsurpassed-and corn planting, though late, is prosecuted industriously. The farmers are slowly recovering from the ravages of the late war, fences are being restored, barns repaired, and some new houses built. The view from any of the neighboring heights, over the fields stretching to the Potomac and Hunting Creek,

NEW Books.-The following new books comprising most of Mdme. Louisa Muhlback's celebrated novels, have been added to the Alexandria Library: The Merchant of Berlin; Berlin and Sans Souci; Henry the Eighth and his Court; Frederick the Great and his Court; Frederick the Great and his Family; Louisa of Prussia and her Times Joseph the Second and his Court; Maria Antoinette and her Son; the Empress Josephine; Napoleon and Queen Louisa; the Daughter of an Empress.

ALEXANDRIA CANAL COMPANY. - An adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Alexandria Canal Company will be held in the Chamber of the Board of Aldermen to-morrow, (Thursday) morning, at 11 o'clock. Messrs. L. D. Harmon and George Markell have been appointed by the Board of Aldermen, and Lewis McKenzie and A. D. Harmon, by the City's stock.

NEW LIME KILN.-Mr. Emanuel Francis is now having constructed on the South bank of the canal basin, just west of the Spa Spring, a kiln for ne burning of lime. The limestone can be thrown from the boats in which it is to be brought down the canal, directly into "the new kiln, and thus a great saving in transportation will be effected. The new kiln will be in operation in the course of three or four weeks.

TEMPERANCE MEETING .- A meeting to organize a juvenile Temperance Society will be held at Temperance Hall, corner of King and Royal streets, this evening, at half-past five o'clock. Those having the affair in charge hope that a large number of the boys and girls of this city will be present, and that the society will start with a long list of members.

MASONIC. - The new hall of Andrew Jackson Lodge, of this place, in Mr. Grimes's building, on Fairfax street, was dedicated with masonic the Mayor's officeceremonies last night. The Lodge room is handsomely fitted up.

Accident.-Mr. Hooge, one of the proprietors of the Virginia sash and door factory, had his band mutilated, and a finger lost, by the machinery in his work shops this morning.

BALL. -Should the weather prove favorable, a grand ball will be given to-night at the Potomac Gardens.

ICE CREAM. - A large freezer of the most delicious ice cream, sufficient for our whole House-each 20 by 123 feet 5 inches.

4. A LOT at the northwest corner of Alfred to the country of the country lorce, editorial, local, typographical, pressmen, evening from the well-known confectionery of Mr. Brengle, on King street. This establishment has long been noted for the excellent quality of the confection of the excellent satisfaction, by deed of trust or otherwise, with tion has in no wise suffered.

Pic-Nic Party.-The young ladies of the Alexandria Female Seminary, accompanied by the Principal, Mr. K. Kemper, his accomplished Assistants, and quite a number of their parents and friends, made their annual visit to "Carlin's Springs" yesterday. A pleasant ride of half an hour brought them to this beautiful and now deservedly popular summer resort. No sooner landed than they spread themselves over the grounds in search of amusement-some to the "Spring," to partake of its waters, than which not even the Gods ever drank purer, cooler, or more delicious-some to the banks of the babbling brook which "flows fast by this Pierian Spring"-tumbling and rumbling here and there over the rocks, forming miniature waterfalls, and seeming to call up to the mind pictures of those on a grander scale-some "over the hills and far away;" some to the "swings," a new feature by the way, added since their last visit here .--Thus the running hours went by "merrily, cheerily," and the time for dinner arrives, when all gather in the large "Dinning Saloon," and immediately fall to work upon the sandwiches, cakes, pies, &c., spread in profusion around them. Having satisfied the wants of their inner person, they again betake themselves to the woods, or the Springs, the brook, or the "Swings," singly or in parties, each for herself, for this day at least as free as the air, seeking how best to spend the time. At 5:30 o'clock the evening train for Leesburg comes rushing up to the platform, creating no little sensation, as it brings a considerable accession to the numbers. After this excitement subsides the event of the day takes place-the Coronation of the May Queen-in which innocent pastime all who took part did credit to themselves and the oceasion. After the Coronation, proclamation is made in the name of her Majesty, the beautiful "Queen Catherine," announcing "that Her Majesty has been graci ously pleased to cause a banquet to be spread for her loving subjects to which all are invited." The Royal party lead the way and the whole company with one accord follow suit. After the feastall repair to the train and are soon speeding away on their return to Alexandria, which point is reached, after a short, but refreshing ride, about 71 o'clock. Thus was spent a most pleasant day; the clouds, though threatening, seemed unwilling to spoil the sport, and by way of encouragement, the sun shone out brilliantly from time to time. All the

SWEARING IN OF NIGHT WATCHMEN.—At twelve o'clock to-day the night watchmen elected by the present Council, having been summoned to the Mayor's Office, appeared there, and, of the seventeen, Capt. John L. Smith, Superintendent, and Raleigh Henry, Basil Waring, Lewis Ticer, Hiram Webster, Charles Morris, Cornelius Phillips, George Struder, John C. Nightingill, Robert Wade, John S. TELEGRAPH NEWS. Special Dispatches to the Gazette.

Louisiana Election. NEW ORLEANS, June 3 .- The anxiously looked for order of Gen. Buchanan, on the election, was promulgated to day. It announces the State, Parish and Judicial officers, but makes no mention of the municipal elections.

The order states that the civil government hereby provided for is provisional in character until after the 14th article shall have become a part of the Constitution of the United States. Any officer elected who is found to be disqualified to hold office at the date named is to hold over until the disability is removed, or a new election held. Cases of contested elections are to be decided by the proper civil tribunals in accordance with the existing State Constitution and laws. The following is the paragraph relative to the assembling of the legislature: The General Assembly will not convene until the commanding general shall have been of ficially notified of the acceptance by Congress of the new State Constitution.
